“Horsemanship II”

At the Historical

December 5-12, 2010

Yippy Yeah Haw, roaring with fun and camaraderie!! The sounds of thundering hooves and the calling out from your steed fill your day. Beautifully nestled adjacent to the Hassaympa River, were once seen wagon trails traveled. Scenic rolling mountains, numerous multi colored canyons and breathtaking views under the Arizona blue sky. Designed for those wanting to further their Confidence, Communication, Leadership, Partnership and knowledge in Horsemanship skills, bringing it to the next level. Stay at the Famously Historical Kay El Bar, an authentic, spectacular guest ranch in the heart of the Wild West. Riding all day with the cow folk, not only building on your riding skills, also developing life long friendships. Take moonlight walks enjoying the stars, as a nightcap of your day. Enjoy wonderful accommodations, delicious homemade food, and gentle sure-footed horses with the instruction of your hostess Katherine Barbarite of Whispering Hooves, LLC an Accredited Instructor of the Frank Bell's 7 Step Safety System and a Certified CHA Riding Instructor , becomes the core of this program. An invaluable opportunity to hone in on working with your timing, finesse, balance and feel as well as better your communication with your horse always with safety in mind. Recap in the evening at happy hour with sharing stories and song of the day. For further information please contact Kathy at #631-764-7515 or email kathy@whisperinghooves.com.
